

Lakewood Health Services

Staples, Minnesota

Project Description

We worked directly with the architect to complete design of a new medical campus to serve central Minnesota. The site was designed to take advantage of the natural amenities on the site and minimize the impact of the impervious surface. A complex system of rain gardens and natural infiltration basins were used to treat storm water on site and served as a major component of the overall prairie-themed landscape design.

LOUCKS
ASSOCIATES